

Name _____

Chorus: Elements of Vocal Production

Test #1 Review

ACROSS

- 4 The acronym of the spaces in the treble clef.
- 9 A symbol used to identify music note names, also known as the G-clef
- 11 The highest range of the female singing voice.
- 13 The ability to sing or play in tune.
- 14 the lowest range of the male singing voice
- 15 Sound that is produced by the vocal cord and modified by various chambers.
- 17 A music symbol consisting of 5 lines and 4 spaces.
- 18 Sound formed by the combination of two vowels in a single syllable where one vowel moves into another vowel.
- 20 Sounds produced by an obstruction of air flow.
- 21 The position of the body in standing or sitting with respect to the proper alignment of the back, shoulders, and head.
- 22 The female singing voice that is higher than the alto and lower than the soprano.
- 23 Air that is inhaled and exhaled in breathing.

DOWN

- 1 An Italian word that means to sing or play smoothly and connected.
- 2 Sounds characterized by a flow of air.
- 3 how high or low the sound is.
- 5 the lowest range of the female singing voice.
- 6 The lowest range of the male singing voice.
- 7 Areas that include the throat, mouth cavity and nasal passages that help produce a person's recognizable voice.
- 8 Any organ in the mouth or throat whose movement produces speech sounds.
- 10 Vocal tract articulators that modify or change the voiced sound.
- 12 The acronym of the lines in the treble clef.
- 16 The male singing voice that is higher than the bass and lower than the tenor.
- 19 The quality and color of your voice.

WORD BANK: VOWELS, TREBLE CLEF, TONE, TENOR, SOPRANO, RESONATORS, RESONANCE, POSTURE, PITCH, MUSICAL STAFF, MEZZOSOPRANO, LEGATO, INTONATION, FACE, EGBDF, DIPHTHONG, CONSONANTS, BREATH, BASS, BARITONE, ARTICULATOR, ARTICULATION, ALTO